COMPLAINT – CIVIL ACTION

Plaintiff, JANE DOE, by and through her attorneys, VSCP LAW, by way of a Complaint against Defendants, Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center, Pennsylvania Department of Human Services, Delaware County, Child Guidance Resource Center, Children and Youth Services of Delaware County, the Court of Common Pleas 32nd Judicial District of Pennsylvania, Devon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, and avers as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Pennsylvania has a long and disturbing history of child abuse and sexual assault at its juvenile disciplinary institutions.¹

2. After abuse comes to light at either private or governmental juvenile facilities, the pattern is always the same: task forces are formed, reports are authored, and statements are made that such atrocities must never be allowed to occur. Yet despite these promises, abuses continue to occur at Pennsylvania’s juvenile disciplinary institutions that have been established to care for, protect and rehabilitate our children. Worse yet is the well-known fact that reported abuse represents only a fraction of the actual abuses that occur as many incidents go unreported, even in cases where the abuse is known and/or suspected to have occurred.²

3. The purpose of juvenile disciplinary institutions is not to punish, but to provide children with the appropriate care, supervision, and rehabilitation. Under Pennsylvania’s Juvenile Act, disciplinary facilities such as the Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center are obligated “[t]o provide for care, protection, safety, and wholesome mental physical development of children.”³ Unfortunately, for the boys and girls who were committed to the Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center, nothing could have been further from the truth.

4. Under the authority of Director Mark A. Murray (hereinafter “Murray”), children at Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center were physically, mentally, and/or sexually abused and neglected by staff and peers. Perhaps worse than the abuse itself was the culture, one not simply of tolerance of abuse, but enthusiasm for abuse. This culture was enabled and advanced by Murray and his staff, evidenced by their continued failure to report and/or prevent suspected, reasonably knowable, and/or known child abuse and neglect.

5. The matter before this Court is also about Defendants, Delaware County, Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center, Children and Youth Services of Delaware County, Court of Common Pleas 32nd Judicial District, and the Department of Human Services’ failure to protect JANE DOE from severe and pervasive abuse that was rampant for years, perpetrated by staff, and the blatant refusal of their employees to report known and/or suspected child abuse that was being and/or had been committed upon children at Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center, of which they knew or should have known, as well as the unconscionable and outrageous conduct of Delaware County, Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center, Delaware County Children and Youth Services, the Court of Common Pleas 32nd Judicial District, and Department of Human in Detention, PROPUBLICA (Feb. 3, 2016), <https://www.propublica.org/article/report-cites-failure-to-act-against-abusers-of-juveniles-in-detention>

Services in allowing Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center to exist as it did, to retain staff who not only abused and neglected children, but also threatened and intimidated minors to stay silent, after knowing of multiple instances of abuse and intimidation involving multiple staff members of Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center, thereby exposing children, including JANE DOE, again and again to known danger.

6. This matter is also about the cover up of abuse perpetrated by Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center and its staff along with Defendant, Child Guidance Resource Center, in choosing to protect their own reputation and bottom line at the expense of the safety and well-being of children in need and in their care, custody, and/or control. The full extent of their efforts in fostering a culture of secrecy that allowed such pervasive abuse of children and the effects of same may likely never be fully known.

THE PARTIES

7. Plaintiff, JANE DOE, is now eighteen years old and an adult individual and was formerly but is not currently a resident of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, who was formerly in the custody of the Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center (DCJDC) as a juvenile between approximately 2015-2018. Her name, date of birth, and address are not contained in this Complaint so as to protect her privacy and Plaintiff may be contacted through her counsel. JANE DOE incurred injuries and damages of a sensitive nature as a result of the intentional and negligent acts and failures of Defendants contained in this Complaint.

8. Defendant, Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center, (“DCJDC”), is a youth detention center owned, controlled, and operated by Defendant, Delaware County, Pennsylvania. Specifically, DCJDC is an activity of Delaware County, which is a political subdivision of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and body politic and lies within this district. The DCJDC is a division of the Court Services Department of Delaware County and governed by the Board of Judges. The facility is licensed and regulated by the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare/Department of Human Services (“DHS”). DCJDC is located at 370 Middletown Road, Lima, PA, 19037.

9. Defendant, Delaware County, (“DC”), is a local government unit and is a county of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with business offices located at 201 West Front Street, Media, Pennsylvania 19063. DC oversees the Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center. DC is a “person” as the term is used in 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

10. The Court of Common Pleas 32nd Judicial District of Pennsylvania (hereinafter “32nd JD”) is a branch of the courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and a judicial body governing Delaware County, where DCJDC is located, and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The 32nd JD maintains a business office at 201 West Front Street, Media, Pennsylvania, 19063.

11. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants DC and 32nd JD engaged in oversight of the DCJDC in violation of the clearly established state law assigning the management of the DCJDC to various local leaders and appointed civilians, as described more fully herein. See 16 P.S. § 5538.

12. Defendant, Children and Youth Services (CYS) of Delaware County is a local governmental entity within Delaware County, with a principal place of business at 201 W. Front Street, Media, PA 19063. CYS is responsible for investigating all allegations of child abuse and neglect and to provide immediate safety and protection to children in cases of abuse.

13. Defendant, Department of Human Services (hereinafter “DHS”), is the Commonwealth Agency responsible for licensing, supervising and regulating juvenile detention facilities in the state, including DCJDC.

14. ABC entities 1-10 are current and/or former public agencies or private entities who were responsible to ensure the safety and protection of children at DCJDC, and, more specifically, to prevent the abuses described more fully herein from occurring. “ABC entity” is a fictitious name designated as such in this Complaint until Plaintiff properly identifies the true name(s) of the additional individual defendants described herein.

15. Defendant, Child Guidance Resource Center (CGRC), is a non-profit organization in Pennsylvania with its headquarters located at 200 Old West Chester Pike, Havertown, Pennsylvania, 19083. At all relevant times hereto, Defendant CGRC provided counseling and other services to children at DCJDC. CGRC and its employees were mandated to report known or suspected child abuse under Pennsylvania law.

16. Defendants DC, CYS, DHS, DCJDC, CGRC, 32nd JD, and ABC Entities 1-10 failed to properly protect Plaintiff and have shown a reckless disregard and deliberate indifference to the widespread violation of Plaintiff’s constitutional rights despite knowing for decades of the conduct of its agents, including the John Doe Defendants and other agents, including physical, sexual and mental abuse and neglect, and the corresponding lack of protection for Plaintiff and the children residing at DCJDC.

17. Upon information and belief, Defendant, Devon Robertson, (“Defendant Robertson”) was, at all times relevant hereto, an employee/agent of DCJDC and/or DC and/or 32nd JD, and worked as a guard/detention officer at DCJDC located at 370 Middletown Road, Lima, PA, 19037. Defendant Robertson was responsible for providing safety and security to juveniles in the care and custody of the DCJDC. At all relevant times, Defendant Robertson acted within the scope of authority granted to him by the law enforcement structure of Delaware County and/or DCJDC, and/or 32nd JD. At all relevant times, Defendant Robertson acted under color of law. Defendant Robertson, while in the course and scope of his employment/agency relationship with DCJDC, and/or DC, and/or 32nd JD, sexually assaulted and abused JANE DOE on multiple occasions. Defendant Robertson was criminally prosecuted for these crimes and ultimately plead guilty to Statutory Sexual Assault, 18 § 3122.1 §§ B, on October 24, 2018.⁴ Defendant Robertson is sued both in his official and individual capacities.

18. John Does 1-100 are current and former managers, supervisors, administrators, officials, guards, staff, employees, counselors, agents, and others who have been employed by or were under the control of their co-Defendant(s), who abused or facilitated the abuse of children at DCJDC. “John Doe” is a fictitious name, designated as such in this Complaint until Plaintiff properly identifies the true name(s) of the additional individual defendants described herein, in accordance with Pa.R.C.P 2005.

19. Defendants DCJDC, CYS, DC, DHS, 32nd JD, Devon Robertson, John Does 1-100, and ABC Entities 1-10 violated the clearly established federal Constitutional and statutory rights of Plaintiff under the Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments subjecting Plaintiff to harmful and degrading physical and mental abuse and neglect, including, but not limited to, the use of excessive and unreasonable physical force, mental torture and neglect and by failing to protect him from harm and injuries at the hands of others.

20. Defendants DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Devon Robertson, John Does 1-100, and ABC Entities 1-10 caused the injuries and harms to Plaintiff by failing to train, supervise and discipline the staff at DCJDC, including, but not limited to, the John Doe Defendants and, as a result, staff at DCJDC, including the John Doe Defendants, as a matter of practice and custom, engaged in the prohibited conduct on a systematic basis with the expectation that their conduct would not be subject to discipline or sanctions.

21. Because of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff suffered and will continue to suffer from physical bodily injuries, emotional distress, physical manifestations of emotional distress, embarrassment, loss of self-esteem, disgrace, humiliation, and loss of enjoyment of life. Plaintiff has and will in the future sustain loss of earnings and earning capacity and has, and will, incur expenses for medical and psychological treatment, therapy and counseling. Defendants are liable for these damages as described more fully below.

22. At all relevant times hereto, Defendants were acting directly, as well as by and through their duly authorized actual and/or apparent agents, servants and employees, in particular, their staff, officers, guards, medical clinicians, clinical case workers, supervisors and/or directors, acting within the course and scope of their actual and/or apparent agency and/or employment.

23. Defendants herein are directly and vicariously liable to Plaintiff for injuries sustained as a result of negligence, gross negligence, outrageous conduct, and reckless misconduct, as described further herein, as well as for violations of Plaintiff's constitutional rights as described further herein, by persons or entities whose conduct was under their control, or right to control which conduct directly and proximately caused all of Plaintiff's injuries.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343 and 42 U.S.C. § 1983. At all relevant times, Defendants DHS, DC, DCJDC, 32nd JD, ABC Entities 1-10 and John Does 1-100 acted under the color of state law.

25. This Court also has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims.

26. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims asserted in this action occurred in the judicial district where this action is brought.

FACTS

I. DCJDC – HISTORY OF ABUSE

27. The Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center is a juvenile detention facility with an obligation to provide a secure setting for young children from the ages ten (10) through eighteen (18) years of age for various reasons.⁵

28. Recently, the Public Defender’s Office of Delaware County initiated and then conducted a lengthy investigation and review of the DCJDC. Current and former DCJDC residents and staff were interviewed as were various case workers who worked at DCJDC. Chief Public Defender for Delaware County Christopher Welsh, along with First Assistant Public Defender Lee Awbrey, wrote to Teresa D. Miller, Secretary for Defendant, DHS, expressing their “grave concerns about the health, safety and well-being of the children in custody” at DCJDC.⁶

29. The Delaware County Public Defender’s investigative findings are chilling and unconscionable. Just a few examples of their investigation include:

- “... through interviews with our clients and interviews with current and former DCJDC staff, our office has uncovered multiple credible allegations of physical, sexual, mental abuse perpetrated by the DCJDC staff against children held in their custody...”⁷

⁷ Id.

- “Youth detained at DCJDC are subjected to prolonged isolation as a form of punishment, sometimes for days or weeks....”⁸
- “Children are denied access to mental health supports and have difficulty accessing medical care....”⁹
- “The facilities are dirty, in disrepair, and in some instances, disgusting. We received reports of inadequate water access on residential units, heat that cuts out during winter, rodents, and bug infestations....”¹⁰
- In conclusion, Mr. Welsh and Mr. Awbrey stated: “We are deeply concerned for the health, safety and well being of our clients and all of the children in custody at the DCJD...”¹¹

30. These facts are especially troubling given that DCJDC promotes itself as a secure custodial facility for its residents and between 2019 and 2020 alone, DCJDC housed a total of 782 children within its facility.¹²

A. Physical, Sexual, Verbal and Psychological Abuse by DCJDC Staff

31. Despite DC, CYS, DCJDC, DHS, and ABC Entities 1-10’s duty to provide a safe and secure setting for the children that reside within the facility, its actions have demonstrated anything but safety and security. DC, CYS, DCJDC, DHS, and ABC Entities 1-10’s conduct has perpetuated the continued abuse of children housed at DCJDC. DC, CYS, DCJDC, DHS, and ABC Entities 1-10’s actions and omissions have displayed blatant disregard for the health and safety of the children they serve, demonstrated by the physical, sexual, and psychological abuse and neglect committed by DCJDC staff over decades.

32. There are numerous accounts of physical and sexual abuse committed by DCJDC's staff followed by DCJDC turning a blind eye to these confirmed acts. Despite the many incidents that occurred under numerous administrators, DC and DCJDC outrageously and unconscionably allowed the abuse to continue and chose not to alert the public of their findings and/or danger associated with entering DCJDC. Nor did DC or DCJDC take any remedial measures whatsoever to prevent future abuse from occurring, nor did DHS take any appropriate action to curtail the abuses either. These obvious affirmative acts and omissions led to thousands of at-risk, vulnerable minors (many from troubled backgrounds and broken homes in need of supervision and rehabilitation) being sent against their will and by court order to DCJDC away from their families and into the throes of an abusive environment.

33. The numerous accounts of physical, sexual, and psychological abuse children suffered while in DC/DCJDC's care include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. DCJDC staff slapped a child's head into a metal wire mesh lined window. The force of the DCJDC's staff slapping the child caused the reinforced window to crack;
- b. A DCJDC staff member shoved and hit a child resident;
- c. A DCJDC supervisor violently shoved a child into a wall as the other staff watched;
- d. DCJDC guards, unchecked by supervisors, used extreme amounts of force to restrain children;
- e. A DCJDC child resident reported on at least two (2) occasions being placed in a chokehold by DCJDC staff which almost caused him to lose consciousness;

- f. A non-resident reported fearing for the life of a child as they watched a DCJDC guard throw the child against a wall in a violent chokehold;
- g. Another repulsive incident involved a DCJDC guard grabbing a pregnant child resident by her shoulders and yelling in her face. After the youth fell to the floor, the DCJDC guard proceeded to carelessly “step over her in a menacing posture as she lay[ed] on the ground” and continued to scream at her. It was later reported that this DCJDC guard’s intent was to cause the child to miscarry;
- h. Another child was victim to a DCJDC guard who repeatedly punched her in the face while another DCJDC guard held her down. Other DCJDC staff just watched as the child was being viciously beaten;
- i. Another horrendous incident involved the physical abuse of a child resident who suffered from a severe mental illness attempting to asphyxiate herself by swallowing clothing. After DCJDC staff was able to intervene and remove the clothing, three (3) DCJDC staff members violently forced the child resident’s head into a toilet forcing her to drink from it after the child resident asked for water;
- j. DCJDC staff also refused to follow suicide protocols as they watched idly as a child had clothing wrapped tightly around her neck causing discoloration in her face and veins to protrude from her neck;
- k. DCJDC staff bragged about the brutal beatings they imposed on the children. A DCJDC staff member was observed gloating about punching a child in the face and stated the staff member “fucked her up.”

- l. In addition to the heinous physical abuse the children suffered at the hands of DCJDC staff, the children also suffered from incessant and despicable verbal and emotional abuse.
- m. There are several reports of the pervasive verbal abuse and threats the children residents suffered while in DCJDC's care. A DCJDC staff member has been observed getting in the face of a child and telling him "I'll see you on the street. I'll beat you up. I'll take care of it."
- n. While in the presence of DCJDC's former Lead Clinician, a child resident courageously reported to the DCJDC supervisors the threats he received from an overnight DCJDC staff member. The child informed the supervisor that the DCJDC staff member threatened the child with the statements he was going "fuck you up" and "fuck [his] mom." DCJDC staff have also been heard yelling out "bitch" to the children.
- o. The verbal abuse and threats made by the DCJDC staff were often racist, misogynistic or offensive to LGBTQ residents. The children were forced to hear vulgar language used by DCJDC staff including occasions when staff shouted out "Fuck you, pussy!" and "Suck my dick, bitch!" at the children.
- p. When attacking the children, DCJDC staff attacked the gender, religious, racial, linguistic, and identity status of the children. These incidents include:
 - Placing a Muslim child in solitary confinement for wearing a hijab in a color the DCJDC staff did not like;

- DCJDC staff refused to believe that a Spanish-speaking child could not understand English. Instead of trying to assist the child, DCJDC staff addressed the language barrier by yelling at the child in English;
 - Another incident of obscene use of language included DCJDC staff yelling at a child calling him the N-word.
- q. Children of the LGBTQ community have also suffered poor treatment by DCJDC staff. DCJDC's staff has degraded, shamed and humiliated the transgender children at the facility.
- r. Whenever transgender children were in the care of DCJDC, staff refused to use preferred pronouns, denied a transgender child a wig and did not permit a transgender girl to shave her facial hair.
- s. To further perpetuate their disdain for the LGBTQ community, DCJDC staff outed a transgender child, did not continue her hormone treatment, and did not allow her to live on a unit consistent with her gender identity.
- t. DCJDC leaders forbid staff from attending training that taught transgender cultural competency which was offered by the state at no cost.
- u. The children also suffered sexual abuse which DC and DCJDC ignored. A child reported a male DCJDC staff coming onto her in a sexual manner but was too fearful of retaliation to disclose the staff member's name. An employee of CGRC recalled a DCJDC staff member, known as "Big Rob," playing a song by R. Kelly, who currently stands charged with sexually abusing children, while chasing a child repeating "I'm gonna get you!" Despite this incident being reported to the Childline, "Big Rob" remained employed at the DCJDC.

The averments above are set forth in Exhibit “A” attached to this Complaint.

34. DC and DCJDC were aware of the abusive patterns used in the facility and have done nothing to stop it.

35. It is also believed and therefore averred DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, ABC Entities 1-10 either knew or should have known of the pervasive and severe abuse and neglect being committed upon children at DCJDC as described above yet did nothing to prevent it from happening.

B. Excessive, Unjustified, and Prolonged Isolation

36. Many of the juveniles detained at DCJDC have suffered and/or are suffering from diagnosed mental, emotional, and/or developmental disabilities. The children also came with documented histories of trauma and childhood victimization. The use of solitary confinement will only exacerbate these issues while also perpetuating the continued abuse of children within facilities such as DCJDC.¹³

37. While Pennsylvania law does permit the use of seclusion under strict supervision, its use is severely limited by statute.¹⁴

38. DCJDC’s use of solitary confinement was not permitted under Pennsylvania law as juvenile detention facilities cannot isolate children for days at a time, use isolation as a form of punishment, nor may they use isolation as a threat to control a child’s behavior.¹⁵

¹³ See Sue Burrell, Trauma and the Environment of Care in Juvenile Institutions, THE NATIONAL CHILD TRAUMATIC STRESS NETWORK, (Aug. 2013) at 4,

¹⁴ See 55 Pa. Code §3800.274(17) (ii)(Under Pennsylvania law, absent an order by a licensed physician, physician assistant or registered nurse, no child shall be subjected to solitary confinement for more than four (4) hours. There must be a re-examination and new order for every additional four (4) hours.)

39. The child residents at DCJDC have been subjected to unlawful prolonged isolation spanning days at a time. During these times of prolonged isolation, there have also been instances where children were arbitrarily deprived of access to mental health counselors.

40. One incident involved a child that was forced into solitary confinement for two (2) weeks due to secondary exposure to Covid-19 despite Covid-19 safety precautions not being consistently followed as Delaware County Covid-19 guidelines do not require employees to quarantine after secondary exposure. On another occasion, a child was left in solitary confinement for several months. See Exhibit “A”.

41. Another instance involved a child suffering from mental illness covering herself in her own excrement while in solitary confinement. The DCJDC ensured that the child remained locked in solitary confinement for three (3) days without water or the ability to shower. See Exhibit “A”.

42. Despite the evidence of its harmful use, DCJDC, under the licensing and supervision of DC and DHS, proceeded with its continued use of solitary confinement.

43. In fact, Director Murray further encouraged and promoted the use of solitary confinement by his DCJDC staff as a form of punishment against the children.

44. During a January 7, 2021 hearing, DCJDC Director Murray openly admitted to the use of solitary confinement against the children. Murry testified that the use of solitary confinement was derived from situational events. The “situational” event Murray testified to was in reference to the immediate use of solitary confinement against a child as a form of punishment after the child stated to the guard that she would slap them. The use of solitary confinement against the child was in violation of Pennsylvania regulations.¹⁶

¹⁶ See 55 Ps. Code § 3800.202; see also 55 Pa. Code §§ 3800.212 (c)(3), 3800.274(17)(ii).

45. From this encounter, DCJDC went through great lengths to obtain a court order to extend the child's solitary confinement from an already long four (4) to eight (8) hour confinement to a full forty-eight (48) hours.

46. It is believed and therefore averred that Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, and ABC Entities 1-10 were aware of the improper use of solitary confinement of children at DCJDC and refused to report or stop the improper practice despite it being clear child abuse.

C. Unacceptable Medical Care, Mental Health Care, Education and Facilities

47. It was and is the duty of DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, and ABC Entities 1-10, to provide the necessary mental health care, medical care, adequate education and facilities to the youth that are under its care.

48. Often, children at DCJDC were denied access to mental health support and/or have difficulty accessing medical care.

49. Knowing the need to have such access to mental health supporters, DCJDC developed deceptive means to prevent children from having access to counselors.

50. A DCJDC employee described that "[s]ome DCJDC staff who placed these children on unit restriction deliberately withhold mental health services during the unit restriction period. To access these children and provide necessary treatment, I had to learn which DCJDC staff members were most likely to give me permission." See Exhibit "A".

51. Children were also arbitrarily denied access to mental health counselors. Oftentimes, the denial of access to mental health counselors was retaliatory.

52. Additionally, children's healthcare was often ignored and disregarded. A child suffering from discomfort was turned away because the medical staff refused to believe her symptoms. It was subsequently determined that the child was suffering from a sexually transmitted disease. This neglect resulted in a two (2) week delay in providing the child necessary treatment. See Exhibit “A”.

53. DC and DCJDC had no interest in furthering the education of the children evidenced by its poor curriculum. The education provided to children was “one size fits all” in which children would receive only two (2) hours of schooling and worksheets that were not tailored to their education level. See Exhibit “A”.

54. In addition to the poor education, the children suffered from severely poor living conditions.

55. The facility was in deplorable condition as it was covered in filth and disgust. Parts of the facility were often covered in mouse droppings and infested with bugs. Some rooms were left unclean for weeks or months at a time. See Exhibit “A”.

56. Children at DCJDC suffered through numerous winters without heat, some occasions lasting as long as a week. When CGRC staff questioned DCJDC regarding the heat, DCJDC stated there was nothing that could be done. A Childline complaint was filed about the freezing temperatures and the heat was restored later that day. See Exhibit “A”.

57. There were instances when it was so cold in the DCJDC facility that children reported seeing their breath. During these winter months DCJDC staff were protected with coats, hats and scarves while the children suffered as they were not given any winter clothing. See Exhibit “A”.

58. Under the National Food Program, the child residents are eligible to receive free breakfast and lunch. Despite this eligibility, the food was inadequate as it was often inedible and as a result the children were often left hungry. DCJDC staff also refuse to accommodate children who are vegetarian.¹⁷

59. The DCJDC kitchen staff also failed to comply with sanitary guidelines.

D. DCJDC's Culture of Secrecy

60. The culture of DCJDC has fostered an environment of secrecy by instilling fear and creating the ever-present threat of retaliation by the DCJDC staff if children were to disclose the abuse they suffered.

61. Children would often beg the Mental Health Clinician to refrain from reporting abuse to authorities as they feared the disclosure would only result in relation from the DCJDC staff and make matters worse for them. See Exhibit "A".

62. Despite there being video cameras on the premises, DCJDC staff were well aware of the blind spots where there was no camera coverage. It is in these areas where the previously outlined instances of physical abuse largely occurred. It was also in these areas where children were most vulnerable and put in danger. See Exhibit "A".

63. The deliberate, strategic, and premeditated actions of the DCJDC staff to ensure that their abusive actions would not be recorded on camera truly exemplifies the scope and scale of the abuses occurring within this facility (and other juvenile detention centers alike).

64. In addition to purposely hiding their abusive acts, DCJDC staff have also altered reports to try and corroborate their false accounts when an incident involving force was reported.

65. To further ensure the secret and abusive culture, children have been deterred from telling the truth by being told no one would believe them. See Exhibit "A".

¹⁷ See <https://www.delcopa.gov/courts/juveniledetention.html>

66. In the above-mentioned incident where a child courageously reported a threat by an overnight DCJDC staff member to the DCJDC supervisor, the supervisor responded, “Do you really think a judge is going to believe a bunch of juvenile delinquents over a corrections officer?” See Exhibit “A”.

67. When Childline reports were made, some DCJDC staff asked for a “heads up” before the report is made. See Exhibit “A”.

68. DCJDC staff would retaliate against those who made Childline reports by giving them the silent treatment, denying them access to mental health services, and responding with other spiteful behaviors. See Exhibit “A”.

69. DCJDC leadership encouraged the secrecy of the horrid physical, sexual, and psychological abuse the children suffered by coaching certain children on how to interact with investigators. DCJDC leaders would bribe children with candy to skew the investigation to further hide the abuse the children suffered. See Exhibit “A”.

70. Despite the presence of cameras within the facility to capture the abuse the children suffered, these videos were often hidden from investigators and on other instances flat out ignored. See Exhibit “A”.

71. DC, CYS and DCJDC were aware of the conduct of staff and other employees to hide the physical abuse the children suffered. DCJDC encouraged the concealment of the abuse the children suffered and has done nothing to end the secrecy culture or protect the children.

72. It is also believed and therefore averred that DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, and ABC Entities 1-10 either knew or should have known of the pervasive and severe abuse and neglect being committed upon children at DCJDC and the concealment efforts by DC and DCJDC, as described above yet did nothing to prevent it from happening.

E. CGRC's Role in the Abuse at DCJDC

73. CGRG is a nonprofit organization and the largest provider of children's mental health services in the greater Philadelphia region.¹⁸

74. Among its various services, CGRC also employs mental health staff that provide mental health services to juvenile detention centers such as DCJDC.

75. The CGRC provided services at the DCJDC through its contract with Defendant, Delaware County.

76. As clinical professionals, CGRC staff had a duty to report abuse children suffered at the hands of DCJDC and its staff but instead was instructed to turn a blind eye and in fact did so.

77. The CGRC encouraged the abuse the children suffered by instructing the CGRC staff to give DCJDC staff “a heads up” when filing a Childline complaint which allowed DCJDC staff time to prepare an explanation and fabricate their accounts. See Exhibit “A”.

78. Despite CGRC's alleged support of the closing of DCJDC and the investigation now underway, CGRC did nothing to stop the abuse the children suffered. Instead CGRC's affirmative actions and omissions furthered the abuse and DCJDC's attempts to keep it hidden.¹⁹

79. Due to pressure by CGRC leadership, CGRC psychiatrists fabricated reports that were used in court to ensure Delaware County Juvenile Probation's desired results. CGRC staff was repeatedly told not to “rock the boat” and were warned against working with the Public Defender's Office regarding the abuse of the children.

¹⁹ See Liia Richmond, Statement Regarding Lima Detention Center, (Mar. 14, 2021), <https://cgrc.org/blog/statement-re-lima-detention-center/>

80. CGRC, its leadership, and its staff were more concerned with their own bottom line and reputation instead of the health and safety of the children as CGRC staff was encouraged to refrain from exposing the abuse that occurred to prevent antagonizing the Delaware County Juvenile Probation as that would cost CRGC its “lucrative contract” with Defendant, Delaware County.

81. CGRC was aware of the abuse that occurred and had a duty to report abuse but chose not to do so in many instances.

II. JANE DOE Suffered Horrible Abuse at DCJDC

82. JANE DOE was a resident at the Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center on multiple occasions between 2015 - 2018. JANE DOE was only fourteen years old when she was a resident of DCJDC and subject to the abuses identified herein.

A. Physical and Sexual Abuse

83. Robertson was a guard during JANE DOE’s time at DCJDC and took advantage of his position of power and authority through his official capacity at DCJDC to force JANE DOE to comply with his demands and unwanted sexual advances which included, but not limited to, kissing JANE DOE, touching JANE DOE’s breasts and vagina under clothing, and attempting to perform oral sex on JANE DOE, and other instances of sexual abuse, while she was a resident at DCJDC. Robertson, through his official capacity and authority over JANE DOE, groomed JANE DOE to trust him so that he could maintain his power and control over her.

84. Robertson routinely entered JANE DOE’s room uninvited and made sexual comments to then thirteen-year-old JANE DOE about her body developing and about sexual acts he wanted to perform on her. He also routinely made comments to JANE DOE about his personal life.

85. Robertson, and the rest of the staff and residents, knew which areas of the facility were outside the frame of the few security cameras at DCJDC. Robertson would specifically take JANE DOE to those areas of the facility, such as the “rec room,” and kiss, touch, and rub JANE DOE’s body all while making sexual comments and telling JANE DOE that he could not wait until she got out of DCJDC so that they could have sex.

86. DCJDC required female residents, including JANE DOE to wear pants with an elastic waist band which allowed Robertson to easily and quickly force his hand into JANE DOE’s pants and touch her vagina.

87. On at least on occasion, Robertson attempted to perform oral sex on JANE DOE while she was a resident at DCJDC.

88. JANE DOE was continuously and regularly physically and sexually abused throughout her time at DCJDC.

89. Because of Robertson’s position of power, authority and control over Jane Doe, a minor, he was able to groom her and force the sexual abuse to continue even when JANE DOE was released from DCJDC.

90. After JANE DOE’s second release from DCJDC, Robertson contacted JANE DOE via social media and arranged to take her to a hotel where he engaged in non-consensual sex with JANE DOE

91. The abuse from Robertson continued as he repeatedly engaged in non-consensual sex with JANE DOE in various hotels and in his car throughout 2015-2018 when JANE DOE was on release or had been discharged from DCJDC. Each time JANE DOE returned to DCJDC, Robertson’s sexual advances at the facility grew increasingly persistent and brazen and yet nothing was done by Defendants to stop the abuse and prevent future assaults.

92. JANE DOE also experienced physical violence from staff and other residents at DDCJDC, and was shoved, hit, and threatened with violence on a daily basis.

B. Psychological Abuse

93. Due to the ongoing physical and sexual abuse and JANE DOE's underlying behavioral and psychological conditions, JANE DOE required medical attention and mental health treatment but it was not provided to her.

94. On several occasions, DCJDC staff refused to allow JANE DOE to take her allotted daily shower.

95. JANE DOE's ability to engage in personal hygiene was weaponized and frequently withheld from her.

96. JANE DOE was subject to taunting, bullying and threats by the guards and staff and lived in fear of further physical abuse.

C. Abusive Living Conditions

97. The living conditions at DJCDC were atrocious. JANE DOE was forced to live in squalor, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. There was no heat in the winter and no coats or warm weather gear was provided. JANE DOE only had one blanket.
- b. Roaches and insects were everywhere.
- c. Mice were a constant presence in JANE DOE's room and the entire facility.
- d. The food was inedible and/or sometimes no food was provided.
- e. Residents were sometimes, and without reason, prohibited and prevented from engaging in routine hygiene, such as, inter alia, not being permitted to shower.

D. DC, DJCDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, and CGRC did nothing.

98. Staff frequently observed Robertson spending time alone with JANE DOE at DCJDC, and even observed Robertson alone with JANE DOE in her cell and even sitting on her bed with her, but nothing was ever done and the abuse continued.

99. On at least one occasion when JANE DOE was not in custody at DCJDC, she attended a private party where Robertson and where other DCJDC staff also happened to be present. The DCJDC staff members at the party witnessed JANE DOE and Robertson together. At the party and all in the view of DCJDC staff members, JANE DOE was given alcohol and Robertson repeatedly made sexual comments to JANE DOE. Yet, when JANE DOE returned to DCJDC a few months later, nothing was ever done and the abuse continued.

100. Other residents complained to staff about the abusive living conditions and the bullying and violent behavior of the guards and other staff, but were ignored, silenced, and/or punished for speaking up.

101. Robertson directed JANE DOE to lie to authorities and deny the occurrence of any sexual encounter between them.

102. When some residents reported improper and abusive conduct by Defendants' employees, those residents suffered retaliation in the form further abuse.

103. JANE DOE was terrified of retaliation from DCJDC staff and from Robertson himself.

104. Defendants allowed and endorsed the atrocious living conditions, and violent and abusive environment such that it continued to exist even after JANE DOE left the facility.

105. Nothing was done to address the culture of violent assaults or horrendous living environment within DCJDC while JANE DOE was a resident.

106. On March 12, 2021—three years after JANE DOE left the facility—DCJDC was ordered closed by President Judge Kevin F. Kelly as a result of reports of extensive child abuse taking place there, including, but not limited to, the abuse described herein.

E. CYS Did nothing

107. On at least one occasion, JANE DOE's mother reported concerns about JANE DOE's unusual behavior and her unhealthy living conditions at DCJDC to CYS, yet, CYS did not take this report seriously and, upon information and belief, CYS did not even complete a report, or conduct any investigation regarding the report of suspected child abuse, as they are required to do under Pennsylvania law.

108. JANE DOE's mother reported that, upon return home from DCJDC, JANE DOE was exhibiting new and/or worsening behavior including that of self-harm, and raised concerns to CYS about activity at DCJDC that was causing this reaction in JANE DOE.

109. CYS allowed the dangerous living conditions and the physical and sexual abuse of JANE DOE and other children, to continue without further reporting or investigation.

110. Nothing was done to address the culture of violent assaults or the horrendous living environment within DCJDC while JANE DOE was a resident.

F. JANE DOE's Damages

111. As a direct and proximate result of the sexual, physical, verbal and psychological abuse and neglect committed by all Defendants, JANE DOE suffered physical and emotional injuries, as more fully set forth in this Complaint. As a result of the abuse at DCJDC, JANE DOE has been severely mentally, psychologically, and emotionally damaged.

112. JANE DOE has suffered and continues to suffer great pain and suffering as a result of the abuse she suffered while a resident of DCJDC, including, but not limited to the following:

- a. Past and future physical pain and suffering;
- b. Mental anguish;
- c. emotional distress;
- d. physical manifestations of emotional distress including:
 - i. past and future stomach pains,
 - ii. past and future headaches,
 - iii. past and future embarrassment,
 - iv. past and future loss of self-esteem,
 - v. past and future disgrace,
 - vi. past and future humiliation,
- e. anxiety;
- f. post-traumatic stress disorder;
- g. past and future medical expenses;
- h. past and future need for psychological counseling;
- i. future lost earnings; and
- j. loss of enjoyment of life.

113. The significant physical, emotional and psychological injuries sustained by JANE DOE are real, significant and ongoing.

114. JANE DOE continues to suffer from stress and anxiety as a result of her time at DCJDC.

115. All of the above sexual, physical, psychological, and emotional injuries were proximately caused by the negligence, carelessness, recklessness, deliberate indifference, constitutional rights violations and other tortious and outrageous acts or omissions of Defendants as set forth in this Complaint.

Federal Claims

COUNT I: 42 U.S.C. §1983

Plaintiff v. DC, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10

Excessive and Unreasonable Force in Violation of the Fourth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments

116. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

117. The Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution protect Plaintiff from sexual abuse, physical abuse and unreasonable or excessive force from Defendants. These amendments also required Defendants, including DC, DCJDC, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, CYS, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, to establish policies and practices to protect Plaintiff from known harms and known patterns of constitutional deprivations.

118. Defendants failed, with deliberate indifference, to provide a safe custodial setting for Plaintiff, by failing to properly train, supervise and discipline staff, including the John Doe Defendants, and failing to appoint the proper individuals to a board of advisors for adequate unbiased, and independent management, as required by state law. As a proximate result of Defendants' policies, practices and customs, the staff at DCJDC, including Davon Robertson and the John Doe Defendants, subjected Plaintiff to sexual abuse, excessive and unreasonable force, a failure to protect from harm, and other abuses as alleged in this Complaint. Defendants violated Plaintiff's Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights when they sexually, physically, verbally, and psychologically abused her and took no action to prevent such abuse despite their knowledge and being on notice of what was occurring at DCJDC.

119. The force used in each of these instances was objectively unreasonable, malicious, sadistic, intended to cause harm, and without any legitimate penological purpose.

120. Defendants served an exclusively public function and acted or failed to act under the color of state law.

121. Defendants' acts and omissions as set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint shock the conscience, deprived Plaintiff of her Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment right to be protected from sexual, physical, mental and psychological abuse and neglect and unreasonable or excessive force, and caused Plaintiff grave physical, emotional, psychological and other harm.

122. The acts and omissions by the Defendants, as described in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint, were the direct and proximate cause of Plaintiff's damages and injuries and are therefore liable to Plaintiff under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the Fourth, Eight and Fourteenth Amendments.

COUNT II: 42 U.S.C. §1983

Plaintiff v. DC, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10
Failure to Intervene

123. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

124. By their conduct and under color of state law, the individual Defendants, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100, and/or individual agents of Defendants DC, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, acting within the scope of their employment with Defendants, DC, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, had opportunities to intervene on behalf of JANE DOE to prevent and stop the abuse that was occurring to her at DCJDC, and to prevent the violation of her clearly established constitutional right to be free from unreasonable and excessive force and cruel and unusual punishment but, with deliberate indifference, declined to do so.

125. Defendants' failures to intervene violated Plaintiff's clearly established constitutional right to be free from unreasonable and excessive force and cruel and unusual punishment as guaranteed under the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments. No reasonable employee/agent of Defendants would have believed that deliberately failing to intervene and thereby permitting such abuse to occur, was lawful.

126. Defendants' acts and omissions, as described in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint, were the direct and proximate cause of Plaintiff's damages and injuries and are therefore liable to her under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Defendants knew, or should have known, that their conduct would result in JANE DOE's abuse and damages.

COUNT III: 42 U.S.C. §1983

Plaintiff v. DC, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10

Deprivation of Rights by Virtue of a Special Relationship

127. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

128. As set forth herein, this is a civil rights action brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 that challenges the constitutionality of the actions by Defendants, DC, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, that resulted in severe injuries to Plaintiff.

129. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, DC, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, were all "persons" and were acting under "color of state law" pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983 by providing care, custody and/or control over Plaintiff, either directly, by delegated authority or via contractual authority.

130. Defendants' constitutional torts are not governed or limited in any way by 42 Pa.C.S. §8541, et seq., or 42 Pa.C.S. § 8521, et seq.

131. The specific harms to which Defendants, DC, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, exposed Plaintiff were foreseeable and direct in that they knew that allowing continuous and regular abuse to occur to Plaintiff and other children at DCJDC would result in severe and lasting harm to Plaintiff.

132. At all times material hereto, Defendants, DC, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, were bound by various Pennsylvania statutes including 16 P.S. § 5538; 42 Pa.C.S.A. § 6326; 37 Pa. Code § 200.1 et seq.; as well as, upon information and belief, its own policies, rules and regulations for the management of children placed in their care.

133. In direct contravention and in violation of those Pennsylvania statutes as set forth above, and, upon information and belief, in violation of Defendants', DC, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, own rules, regulations, and policies, Defendants , DCJDC, DHS, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, recklessly and willfully subjected Plaintiff to physical and psychological harms, described herein, even though such harms were foreseeable.

134. At all times material hereto and upon information and belief, Defendants, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, adopted and enforced rules, regulations and policies for their management and supervision of children placed in custody.

135. At all times relevant hereto, a “special relationship” existed between Defendants, DCJDC, DHS, CYS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, and Plaintiff, who was a minor in their care, custody, and control.

136. Upon information and belief, a “special relationship” existed between Plaintiff and the aforesaid Defendants for purposes of 42 U.S.C. § 1983, as Plaintiff was placed in their care as a minor, and that care was custodial in nature, and resulted in the deprivation of Plaintiff’s liberty, privacy and bodily interests.

137. Defendants, DC, DCJDC, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, CYS, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, while acting under color of state law, unlawfully, and/or intentionally, unreasonably, willfully, maliciously, and/or with deliberate and/or reckless indifference to the Plaintiff’s rights, violated 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and deprived Plaintiff of her rights as guaranteed under the Fourth and/or Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, similar provisions of the Pennsylvania Constitution, Federal Law, State Law, and/or local law in that these Defendants without lawful basis caused the aforementioned injuries and damages to Plaintiff as described in this Civil Action Complaint, in violation of the aforesaid guaranteed rights as follows and upon information and belief:

- a. Failing to adhere to acceptable standards for good and reasonable juvenile detention placement;
- b. Negligently, carelessly and recklessly placing Plaintiff in contact with staff/agents of Defendants when they knew or should have known of the violent propensities and dangers to others;
- c. Failing to properly and timely remove/release/terminate staff members from their positions after concerning events occurred;

- d. Failing to exercise reasonable care with respect to Plaintiff's care in Defendants' care custody and control;
- e. Failure to properly screen, train, and supervise employees and agents which allowed the harms suffered by Plaintiff to occur;
- f. Permitting and/or otherwise causing Plaintiff to be exposed to the harms and dangers within DCJDC as described herein, despite the dangers being known and obvious;
- g. Permitting and/or otherwise causing Plaintiff to be exposed to sexual, physical and psychological abuse;
- h. Failing to adequately protect Plaintiff from sexual abuse, physical assault and psychological abuse, at the hands of their own employees/agents;
- i. Failing to remove Plaintiff from DCJDC despite the awareness of the environmental conditions of the facility and the abuse perpetrated by employees/agents;
- j. Failure to enforce codes, regulations and policies with respect to proper custody of children;
- k. Such other deliberately indifferent, reckless, and willful and wonton conduct resulting in the violation of Plaintiff's rights that shall be revealed through discovery prior to trial.

138. Defendants, DC, DCJDC, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, CYS, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, aforesaid conduct, initiated under color of state law, unlawfully, and/or intentionally, unreasonably, willfully, maliciously, and/or with deliberate and/or reckless indifference violated 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and deprived Plaintiff of her rights as guaranteed under the Fourth, and/or Fourteenth Amendments to U.S. Constitution, similar provisions of the Pennsylvania Constitution, Federal Law, State Law, and/or local law without lawful basis, thus causing injuries and damages to Plaintiff as aforesaid.

COUNT IV: 42 U.S.C. §1983

Plaintiff v. DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10

Deprivation of Rights by Virtue of State Created Danger

139. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

140. As set forth herein, this is a civil rights action brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 that challenges the constitutionality of the actions by Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, that resulted in severe injuries to Plaintiff.

141. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, were all “persons” pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983 as all were providing care, custody and/or control over Plaintiff.

142. The specific harms to which Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, exposed Plaintiff were foreseeable and direct in that they knew that allowing continuous and regular abuse to occur to Plaintiff and other children at DCJDC would result in severe and lasting harm to Plaintiff.

143. At all times material hereto, Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, were bound, as previously set forth herein, by the Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution as well, upon information and belief, their own policies, rules and regulations for the management, care and oversight of children placed in juvenile detention facilities in Pennsylvania.

144. In direct contravention and violation of the Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments as set forth above and, upon information and belief, in violation of their own policies and regulations, Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, recklessly, willfully and with deliberate indifference, sexually, physically, verbally and psychologically abused Plaintiff.

145. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, were acting under “color of state law” for purposes of 42 U.S.C. § 1983 by placing Plaintiff in the Delaware County Juvenile Detention Center.

146. Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, while acting under color of state law, unlawfully, and/or unreasonably, willfully, recklessly, maliciously and/or with deliberate indifference to Plaintiff’s rights, violated 42 U.S.C. §1983 and deprived Plaintiff of her rights as guaranteed under the Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, similar provisions of the Pennsylvania Constitution, Federal Law, State Law, and/or local law in that these Defendants, without lawful basis, caused the aforementioned injuries and damages to Plaintiff by creating the danger to which Plaintiff was exposed, in violation of her aforesaid guaranteed rights, as set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

147. The danger created by Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, as set forth above, was foreseeable and direct.

148. Through its failures, acts and omissions as set forth above, Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, created a degree of culpability that shocks the conscience.

149. In creating the danger as set forth above, Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, acted in a willful disregard for the safety of Plaintiff.

150. As the facts set forth in this Complaint demonstrate, Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, knew or should have known that DCJDC was abusing minors, including Plaintiff, and that by failing to take action to stop such abuses, Plaintiff was exposed to serious harm and established a deliberate indifference on their behalf towards her.

151. Defendants', DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and ABC Entities 1-10, acts and omissions, as described in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint, were the direct and proximate cause of Plaintiff's damages and injuries and are therefore liable to him under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

COUNT V: 42 U.S.C. §1983
Plaintiff v. DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, and ABC Entities 1-10,
Municipal Liability Claim

152. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

153. Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, and ABC Entities 1-10, by and through its final policymakers, had in force and effect during the time of the abuse that occurred to Plaintiff and other children, and for many years preceding these abuses coming publicly to light, a policy, practice or custom of unconstitutional misconduct in the care, custody, supervision and/or control of minors that were placed in the Defendant's, Delaware County, juvenile detention center at Lima. Such unconstitutional misconduct includes the acts and abuses that are described in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

154. Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, and ABC Entities 1-10, had actual or constructive notice of these policies, practices and customs, but repeatedly failed to make any meaningful investigation into the complaints that were raised about DCJDC and failed to take appropriate remedial and/or disciplinary actions to curb this pattern of misconduct.

155. Such unconstitutional municipal customs, practices and/or policies were the moving force behind the abuse that occurred to JANE DOE and the injuries and damages she sustained as a result.

156. Defendants, DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, and ABC Entities 1-10, also failed, with deliberate indifference, to provide a safe custodial setting for Plaintiff, by failing to properly train, supervise and discipline staff at the school, including the John Doe Defendants.

157. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' failure to train, supervise, monitor, discipline, oversee and control the staff at DCJDC, including the John Doe Defendants, Plaintiff was subjected to excessive and unreasonable force, a failure to protect from harm, and other abuses as set forth in this Complaint.

158. Defendants, DC, DCJDC and its staff, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, and ABC Entities 1-10, violated Plaintiff's Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights when they sexually, physically, verbally, and psychologically abused her and took no action to prevent such abuse despite their knowledge and being on notice of what was occurring at DCJDC.

159. Defendants', DC, DCJDC, CYS, DHS, 32nd JD, and ABC Entities 1-10, acts and omissions, as described in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint, were the direct and proximate cause of Plaintiff's damages and injuries and are therefore liable to her.

State Law Claims

COUNT VI: NEGLIGENCE

Plaintiff v. DC, DCJDC, CYS, CGRC, 32nd JD, Devon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and/or ABC Entities 1-10

160. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein:

161. At all relevant times, Defendants DC, DCJDC, CYS, CGRC, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and/or ABC Entities 1-10, owed a duty to ensure that minors were not being physically, verbally and/or psychologically abused by staff at DCJDC and a duty to report any known or suspected child abuse.

162. At all relevant times, Defendants DC, DCJDC, CYS, CGRC, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and/or ABC Entities 1- 10 owed a duty not to help cover up child abuse at DCJDC.

163. At all relevant times, Defendants DC, DCJDC, CYS, CGRC, 32nd JD, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and/or ABC Entities 1- 10 owed a duty to protect and safeguard Plaintiff from hurt, harm and danger while she was under their care and supervision at DCJDC. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to ensure that the abuse being committed by DCJDC employees was reported.

164. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to provide for the safety of Plaintiff when it knew, or should have known, that she was subjected to continuous and regular abuse.

165. At all relevant times, Defendants knew or should have known that agents, employees, servants and/or staff members of DC/DCJDC were sexually, physically, verbally and psychologically abusing Plaintiff as well as other minors at DCJDC and/or posed a risk to Plaintiff.

166. Defendants knew, had reason to know, or were otherwise on notice of the unlawful conduct of DCJDC and its own staff who failed to protect the safety of children in DCJDC, including Plaintiff. Defendants failed and further prevented its staff in taking reasonable steps to implement reasonable safeguards to prevent acts of unlawful abuse by the staff at DCJDC. Defendants, CGRC, John Does 1-100 and/or ABC Entities 1-10 failed to prevent or avoid placement of Plaintiff in functions or environments in which she would be endangered and abused.

167. By failing to act and remain silent given the known, or reasonably knowable, activities of DC/DCJDC staff, Defendants allowed for sexual abuse, physical violence, mental torment, and the violation of the sanctity of children, including Plaintiff, to be condoned, approved, and effectively authorized.

168. Defendants DC, DCJDC, 32nd JD, CYS, CGRC, Davon Robertson, John Does 1-100 and/or ABC Entities 1-10 allowed, condoned and authorized the abuse of minors by telling its staff members not to report the abuse happening at DCJDC. Defendants further aided in the cover up of the abuse of minors occurring at the detention center so that it may keep its “lucrative contract” with Defendant, Delaware County.

169. Through their failure to timely reprimand and speak out against the acts referenced above, and for all of the other reasons set forth herein including, without limitation, their failure to take the steps necessary to prevent the occurrence of such reprehensible acts, Defendants ratified said actions and, accordingly, are vicariously liable for the actions of their entities and individual employees.

170. At all relevant times, Defendants, DC, DCJDC, 32nd JD, CYS, CRGC, Davon Robertson, John Does 1 – 100 and ABC Entities 1-10 failed to adequately and properly:

- a. employ processes that require its employees to report, screen out and/or prevent the abuse of children by staff;
- b. supervise their agents, employees, servants, staff members, and/or the agents, employees, servants, staff members, and/or agents under their supervision; and
- c. train their agents, employees, servants and/or staff members.

171. The negligent, reckless, intentional, outrageous, deliberately and recklessly indifferent and unlawful acts and omissions of Defendants, DC, DCJDC, 32nd JD, CYS, CRGC, Davon Robertson, John Does 1 – 100 and ABC Entities 1-10, as set forth above and herein, consisted of, inter alia:

- a. permitting staff to physically and sexually abuse Plaintiff;
- b. permitting and/or allowing an environment in which staff violated or engaged in conduct that would constitute violations of Pennsylvania criminal statutes prohibiting Endangering the Welfare of a Child (18 Pa.
